CHARITY ORGANIZATION SOCIETY OF THE CITY OF NEW YORK,

21 UNIVERSITY PLACE.

ROBERT W. DE FOREST, Pres.
CHARLES S. FAIRCHILD, Vice-Pres.

CONSTANT A. ANDREWS, Treas.
CHAS. D. KELLOGG, General Secretary.

Telephone No., 380 18th st.
Cable Address, "Charity, New York."

A CONFIDENTIAL COMMUNICATION for Members and Constituents of the Society EXCLUSIVELY.

NEW YORK JUVENILE GUARDIAN SOCIETY.

The present activity of the "New York Juvenile Guardian Society" impels us to call more special attention to it, although it has been upon our Cautionary List for a long time. We have watched the society closely for the past year, and we do not find any material improvement since its condemnation by the State Board of Charities, or that any supervision is given to the society by the trustees. The office has been for months in charge of two disreputable persons, and we have good evidence that Mr. Robertson has rarely been to the office during the year. The circulars he is now issuing fail to give any information as to the present receipts and expenditures; and are misleading in that they give the impression that the society is still receiving State and City appropriations, when in fact these were cut off for cause several years since. It also uses the names of persons as directors and ex-treasurers unwarrantably. The marvel is that an enterprise that has so often been exposed in the public prints for ten years past, can find enough thoughtless or careless contributors to enable it to live.

A NEW IMPOSTOR.

All ministers are cautioned against a tall, thin young man, age about 22, small black moustache, respectable appearance, with southern accent; usually claims to live in Washington, and begs for money to go South. He has defrauded several clergymen already on this plea.

City Directories of 1891.

The Society has need of a few more copies of the New York City Directory for 1891—volume 105. If some of our members who have supplied themselves with the new volume 106 for 1892 can spare the previous issue and will kindly so advise the General Secretary he will send for the book, and we will be grateful for the gift.

CAUTION TO MEMBERS.

Members are advised to consult with this Society before giving to the societies, private almoners, or persons included in the cautionary lists named below. Any information relating to them, particularly if of such a character as to warrant a withdrawal of this caution, should be forwarded promptly to the Executive Committee of the Council.

OF THE

CHARITY ORGANIZATION SOCIETY OF THE CITY OF NEW YORK,

21 UNIVERSITY PLACE.

ROBERT W. DE FOREST, *Pres.*CONSTANT A. ANDREWS, Treas.

Telephone No., 380 18th st.

CHARLES S. FAIRCHILD, *Vice-Pres.*CHAS. D. KELLOGG, General Secretary.

Cable Address, "Charity, New York."

A CONFIDENTIAL COMMUNICATION for Members and Constituents of the Society EXCLUSIVELY.

FUTURE ISSUES OF THE BULLETIN.

The Executive Committee at its meeting on Monday, 23d of January, resolved hereafter not to print the BULLETIN oftener than once in three months, but arrangements will be made to keep our subscribers fully informed between the issues as to the dubious cases which come to the notice of the Society. The list of contributions will also be omitted. The only object which the Executive Committee have in mind in making this change is to benefit our members, and they trust that their expectations will be realized.

APPEALS.

1. The Third District Committee make an appeal for a man, formerly a driver, but now a hopeless sufferer from paralysis of the legs and utterly destitute. They desire to raise a pension of $25 a month until the man's wife and children can support the family. The man is 36 years old and bears an excellent character. The couple have seven children, all under 15 years old (the youngest is only 2 months old), and the entire family income at present is the $4 a week which the two older children earn. The man would like writing which he might do at home. The case has been carefully investigated and there is no doubt that they are the victims of adverse circumstances through no fault of their own, and as such have a claim upon the assistance of the charitable.

Please make cheques payable to Chas. D. Kellogg, in trust, and state that the appeal was in the February BULLETIN.

2. The Central District Committee ask work for a man, 28 years old, who has but one leg. He has been a beggar and a drunkard, but says that he wants to "make a man of himself," and the committee feel encouraged to attempt to make the opportunity for him. Money is not wanted and will do no good, but work at which he can earn his living, if given, will be a real act of charity.

THE CHARITIES REVIEW.—The issues of March and June, 1892, are out of print at the publishers' and spare copies are much needed. Members having full sets of the first volume, and desiring to have them bound, can do so at $1 a volume by sending them to the General Secretary.
